

Future Teller

Joe

Hey, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Hey, girl, its so nice to meet you
And I wanna know why you're here alone, yes!
And hey, you have all my attention
So much that I had to shut off my phone
(Your eyes) got me dreaming about what I wanna do to you
(You looked surprised) that I'm tripping on how beautiful you are!
You make me tell the truth, you have a single line
How are my chances to take you home with me to make you

You give me forever, I'll give you eternity
You're making life magical
And I tell you that your future is here with me
Oh, oh, oh!

Hey, its so hard to not wanna be right next to you when I'm so damn fine
Hey, and hey, got a bottle of Rose and the conversation is that alright!
(One look in your eyes)
I can see it, girl, you're about to fall again
And you look surprised
Let me take you to that good love residence
I gotta tell the truth, you are the reason why
I wanna give you 100% of me, tonight!

You give me forever, I'll give you eternity
You're making life magical
And I tell you that your future is here with me
Oh, oh, oh!

You make me tell the truth
I wanna give you 100%!

Girl, I wanna do this dance with you (all night!)
Its so easy to do, yeah!
You just come right here next to your boy
And lets do these things all night like this

Take my hand, spin you around
Come right by to me, and dance the night away!
Oh, oh, oh, take my hand, spin you around
Come right by to me, and dance the night away!

You give me forever, I'll give you eternity
You're making life magical
And I tell you that your future is here with me!
Oh, oh, oh!
You give me forever, I'll give you eternity
You're making life magical
And I tell you that your future is here with me, eh!
