

Heart Behind My Eyes

Joe

Sitting in the dark
With so many why's
How could i ignore your tears?
Or hear your cries
So many times i didn't let you win
Like a fool I walked away
Or started an argument, yeah

Why do I do the things I do
When my heart belongs to you
I failed to help you truly see
What you really mean to me
So give me a minute so I can show the way it looks before you go
The heart you own that beats in me
Hear my plea baby

Baby don't leave, please don't go
I was a fool not to show
How I really feel inside, I was scared
Cause I been hurt a time or two
But nothing compares to losing you
I'm willing to put my pride aside
To show you the heart behind my eyes

I can see you're tired
And maybe wanna be apart
I can't say that I blame you
Cause I made loving me so hard
Shorty understand that I'm just a man
Who wants to learn your love
So don't let go my hand

I've let you down so many times
It took saying goodbye to realize
How I failed to help you see
What you truly mean to me
So give me a minute, look in my eyes
So you can see deep down inside
The heart you own that beats in me
Is begging please

Baby don't leave, please don't go
I was a fool not to show
How I really feel inside, I was scared
Cause I been hurt a time or two
But nothing compares to losing you
I'm willing to put my pride aside
To show you the heart behind my eyes

Baby don't leave, please don't go
I was a fool not to show
How I really feel inside, I was scared
Cause I been hurt a time or two
But nothing compares to losing you
I'm willing to put my pride aside
To show you the heart behind my eyes

My heart would die inside (my heart)
If you ever said goodbye (my heart)
It's begging for you to stay
Girl I'm gunna change my ways
It wants to open up (my heart)
And give you all this trust (my heart)
Just won't give up
Please don't take your love

Baby don't leave, please don't go
I was a fool not to show
How I really feel inside, I was scared
Cause I been hurt a time or two
But nothing compares to losing you
I'm willing to put my pride aside
To show you the heart behind my eyes

Noooooo whooooo
The heart behind my eyes
Just let me show you
The heart behind my eyes
