

Here She Comes

Joe

Sorry baby - didn't mean to do this to you
Sorry baby - didn't mean to do this to you

After a long night of lusting
Shorty came home while I was crushing
I'm about to get busted
I'm rushing
It's about to unfold
And I'm about to get thrown in the cold
Cause she be on some left-eye shit
Might set my house on fire-take a brick to my whip
Oh no!
I wanna hit it some more
But I think I heard my girl put her keys in the door
Can I hide under the bed(You can't go there)
In the closet(You can't go there)
On the balcony(But you can't, she'll look)
There's a hide-away behind the bush

Oh no here she comes
Shorty bounce my girl is on her way upstairs
I know here she comes
You need to get your shit and get up out of here
Oh no here she comes
You're about to get a __ straight __
Oh no here she comes
OOOHH NOO!
I know she's gonna trip
If she finds you here messing with her man
Better disappear
Think I got a plan
Get you outta here
Shhh!
You should jump out the window

I gotta come yp with an excuse
The reason why I had a girl up in this room
She won't believe me though
Cause we been through the same situation before
