

Lose Control

Joe

Oh-ooh
Wooh
Yeah
Yeah
Lose Control

As soon as you wake up -
You know who you were thinking
As soon as you freshen up
You know that you gotta get out
And you say that you still feel me from last week
That's just two lil marks that I love to leave
You say you hear them voices
Telling you to call me
After the club, oh oh

But when she's leavin' that club
She knows that
She's callin' me "Mr. Beat-It-Up"
But when she comes from that club
She knows
That I'm gonna tear it up
Uh Huh
First, remove the pillows from this bed
Then I'm a put your legs right next to your head
I'm a make you lose control
Oh-oh oh-oh-ooh
I'm a make you lose control
Oh-oh oh-oh-ooh
First we turn the lights down in this room
I don't wanna hear or see nothing but you
I'm a make you lose control
Oh-oh oh-oh-ooh
I'm a make you lose control
Oh-oh oh-oh-ooh

As soon as she get done
She's already planning for another one
She set it open like the last one
She got some tricks up her sleeve
I'm a think that she's a Magician
Whoa
She want it again
Again Again and again
She's gonna call me when she leaves up out the club, club
And she want it again, now!
