

Something for You

Joe

(Hey!)
Yea
(Hey!)
Yea
Okay (Hey!)
I think we ready
(Hey!)

Pretty little thing you are Pretty little thing, you're my superstar
You're my superstar
It's been a couple weeks
And I wanna be
A little closer
That might be where we are
Don't play tonight, baby
Not a fantasy but reality
You and me like a work of art baby
Oh, I wanna get next to you

You got it baby, got the game on smash
I'm so fly, I'm so special
You burn your fire bad and you got a lot of class
You ain't seen my show, you don't know that

I got a little something for you
(A little something for you)
Just relax, lay back
Do your thing girl, do your thing girl
Go, uh I got something for that
That body... mm so bad
I think we make a perfect match
Let's not waste time no more

Have a glass of wine, one for your love
Now I see it in your eyes, baby
Like you wanna make love
I be running right through your tunnel of love
And carefully I ride to the end
And do it all over again (go!)

You got it baby, got the game on smash
I'm so fly, I'm so special
Girl you're the baddest I've ever seen but you're missing out
You ain't seen my show, you don't know that

I got a little something for you
(A little something for you)
Just relax, lay back
Do your thing girl, do your thing girl
Go, uh I got something for that
That body... mm so bad
I think we make a perfect match
Let's not waste time no more

Girl come closer, I wanna be
All over you, all over me

Hey, if you like, you'll be...
Shine over love and cuts through deep
It's the point of ecstasy
Baby let me show you, you don't know that

I got a little something for you
(A little something for you)
Just relax, lay back
Do your thing girl, do your thing girl
Go, uh I got something for that
That body... mm so bad
I think we make a perfect match
Let's not waste time no more
