

Start Over Again

Joe

I just can't believe it's over, damn
(I just wanna start over again)
How did it get to be this way
You and I, fussin' and fightin' almost everyday
Where the sun used to shine, now it rains
The look in your eyes only reminds me of the pain between us
Baby, what happend to all the affection
The love and connection we used to share
Brighter days, they seem so far away
Sometimes I just wanna give up

My love, if you want it back
I'll be willing to stay out the clubs ballin'
If you want it back
Change my number, keep them other ho's from callin'
If you want it back
Girl I'll do it right now, no more stallin'
Cuz I want it back, so tell me.....

Can we (can we), can we start all over again
Been through too much to let it go
I need my shorty, my lover, my friend
Baby let's not fight no more
You know inside, we were meant to spend forever
Nothing can stop us as long as we're together, hold on
Give us another chance, I need to know
Can we start over again

Would be so easy to just turn and walk away, to Charge it to the game and look to another day
But damn it, something just keeps pulling me in Girl, deep down inside you know this isn't the end between us
Baby if you hold on to me, you'll see
We can make things right, if you help me fight
I could be wrong but I'll take that chance
Cuz I think it's worth it, you know it's worth it girl

Baby, take me back
If without me, you just can't sleep
Mmm just take me back
If you wake up at night, reachin' for me
Baby, take me back
If leaving brings uncertainty
Girl, just take me back
Oh baby....

Girl there's (no other way I can put it to you)
Oh babe, cuz I need you right here with me
(Anything to keep this love together, I'll do)
Oh lady, but first you gotta work with me
(We both made mistakes, along the way the breaks)
I'll take the blame from my part and that's a start
(But it takes two)
Tell me are you willing to do the same in return (return)
Please don't let it burn
