

The Rest Will Follow

Joe

Things went good but it could been better
I know this man and is no need to lie
You was at the door but nothing
We came back and gave another try
I made my mistake I learn my lesson
From all the tears that felled down your eye
I'mma keep it real after see your expression
Had to see it guide

Girl I'm a change man
And I'm waiting to understand
Yeah always about me now you kiss is the key
I got to shut up and listen some times

We gotta be quite and the rest will fallow
I tell myself, I need faith and the rest will fallow
No need to rush, lets stay fallow
Baby lets stay together
The rest we fallow, so I know

I was so dumn yeah I should been smarter
I'm ashamed of how I treated you
Should know better not to hurt your feelings
I should respect that you've been young too
I should listen to the preach
'Cause now I'm ripping what I sold
And all these words just don't mean nothing
When all you hold, will froze

I'm a change man
And I'm waiting to understand
Yeah always about me now you kiss is the key
I got to shut up and listen some times

I gotta be quite and the rest will fallow
I tell myself, I need faith and the rest will fallow
No need to rush, lets stay fallow
Baby lets stay together
'Cause I know the rest we fallow, so I know
Yes we fallow
I'm dedicated, don't take my life
I know what to get to make things right
I gotta be quite and the rest will fallow
I tell myself, I need faith and the rest will fallow
Said I love you girl
Yes we fallow, so baby lets stay together
