

Till the Rope Gives Way

Joe

If my heart is broke baby ooh then I give you my soul
If Heaven let me have you forever oh
I hope, I hope, I hope we never grow old yeah
There's a start which made morning
Yeah and I'm reaching, I'm reaching, I'm reaching for you babe
The way I get there, I know I get back
Nothing can shake me, nothing can brake me from you

I'm gonna hold on, ooh til the rope gives way
I'm gonna hold on, yeah til the rope gives way

If I had all money in the world
I would buy you the Universe, any planet
Take a second to think on what I'm saying to you baby
If you don't get me then I will make time reverse

I'm gonna hold on, hey, til the rope gives way
I'm gonna hold on, yeah til the rope gives way
Til the rope gives way

I wont let go, I wont let go til the rope gives way
I'm gonna hold on, yeah til the rope gives way
I'm gonna hold on, yeah til the rope gives way
