

Worst Case Scenario

Joe

Ooooh ooooh ooh ooh
Never paid enough attention
There's some things I should have mentioned, oh baby
Never held you when we kicked it
See the times thats all you needed
Didnt notice all the signs you were sending
Didnt think not for a moment we'd be ending, no
Every time that I lie, made you cry,
Took a sparkle from your eyes
And erased your smile

Blackberry blowin up
Turn it off
Just wanna be alone
If it aint you then im not home
Heard hes moving in and your moving on
Well congratulations baby

Someone else making love to you
Its killing me to think of you in bed with
Somebody new
Giving you that extra spark
Dipping in your goodie jar
This could be by far
The worst case scenario

Someone else zipping up your dress
Complimenting you on how you look so damn sexy
Somebody deep in love
Could turn around and mess it up
This could be by far
The worst case scenario

(no more) two man's face
(no sex) in the escalade
Me watching your booty
While you watching the movie
(no trips) to the west indies
(no chilling) in the vip
And I cant believe that its over,
It's over, it's over

Blackberry blowin up
Turn it off
Just wanna be alone
If it aint you then im not home
I heard hes moving in and your moving on
Well congratulations baby

Does he call you baby girl
Can he really rock your world
No one can do you the way I do
Can you tell me theres no spark
Burning inside your heart
I do believe, you still love me

Someone else making love to you
Its killing me to think of you in bed with
Somebody new
