

Hip Bone Wishes

Joel Faviere

You said, "Pick a movie,"
I say, "Yours Truly."
Color television
Sex make our decision

Broken ambition
Hip bone wishes
Contract, lip-lock
We're just doin' business

Nose ring
Caught up on your belt when I went down
Broken wings end this, broke and ambitious
Am I broke in this? Am I broke?

I could make you cry, but you need your eyes
I could make you cry, but you need your eyes

Butterfly ticklish, this is outrageous
Smearred lipstick on romantic pages

I could be your summer
I can be your winter
I can make your little, little, little lip quiver

I could be a whisper
In your ear, your chills
I know that every little bit of silence kills

So what if I shut my mouth right know?
Let'cha be my speaker
Let'cha be my speaker, yeah

I could make you cry, but you need your eyes
I could make you cry, but you need your eyes
I could make you cry, but you need your eyes

Cry...
