I woke up alarmed at the scene of the dark
I run to your bedroom door
Your incident eyes stare back at mine
I couldn't belive that sight
This isn't a real body, so still
A portrait of a good fight,
Good fight, good night
When I'm falling deep down under
I'm always gonna wonder
If your watching after me
Watching after me when
I'm falling deep down under
I'm always gonna wonder
I'm always gonna wonder
If you're watching after me
Wathcing after me

Falshes of bright light behind the blinds A whole world of sound blocked out Huddled in the cold with glass intertwined Hate tread I just scream out This isn't a real body, so still A portrait of a good fight, Good fight, good night When I'm falling deep down under I'm always gonna wonder If you're watching after me When I'm falling deep down under I'm always gonna wonder If you're watching after me Watching after me because I'm falling down I'm falling down Are you watching after me? Tell me please are you watching After me Please Oh please, good night
