

The best idea I ever had

Joel Faviere

She said, "Jump!"
So I said, "How high, pretty little baby with the big, brown eyes?
You don't need them other guys, cause I can be your drug of choice, tonight..."
We're swervin' off the road, never doin' what we're told
And ya already know, you got me ready to go, m-mm
You're the best, the best idea I ever had
And I was such a wreck, until you came around
Now, you're so cute
But that's old news
Cause, you're the best, the best idea I ever had
It's true, oh
The best idea I ever had, it's true
Oh, hoah
The best idea I ever had
True, oh
The best idea I ever had, it's true
Oh, hoah
The best idea I ever had
It's the things you say;
They drive me cra-cra-crazy
Each and every day
You make me feel less out of place
Yeah, yeah, yay
Yeah, yay
They drive me cra-cra-crazy
Yeah, yeah, yay
Yeah, yay
Can ya hear me, sweetie?
You're the best, the best idea I ever had
And I was such a wreck, until you came around
Now, you're so cute
But that's old news
Cause, you're the best, the best idea I ever had
It's true, oh
The best idea I ever had, it's true
Oh, hoah
The best idea I ever had
True, oh
The best idea I ever had, it's true
Oh, hoah
The best idea I ever had, it's true...
Yeah, yeah, yay
Yeah, yay
They drive me cra-cra-crazy
Yeah, yeah, yay
Yeah, yay
They drive me cra-cra-crazy...
