

I Love You A Thousand Ways

John Anderson

I love you and I'll prove it in days to come
I swear, it's true and darling, you're the only one
I think of you and of the past and all our fun
And I love you and I'll prove it in days to come

You're my darling, you've been true
And I should have been good to you
You're the one that's in my heart
When we're apart

So darling, please wait, please wait and you will see
There'll be a change, a great change made in me
And I love you and you never will see blue days
I love you and I'll prove it a thousand ways

I'll be nice and sweet to you
And no more will you be blue
I'll prove, I love you everyday
In every way

So darling, please wait, please wait and you will see
There'll be a change, a great change made in me
And I love you and you never will see blue days
I love you and I'll prove it a thousand ways
