

If There Were No Memories

John Anderson

If there were no wishes
Perhaps I wouldn't want
All the things I'd like to have
And someone I'd likely want

If there would have been no faith
Perhaps we never would've met
And if there were no memory
I wouldn't have to forget

If there would be no sadness
Then nobody have to cry
And you'd see no lonely teardrops
Falling from my eyes

If there would have been no loving you
My heart would not be broken yet
And if there were no memories
I wouldn't have to forget

Yes, if there were no memories
Maybe I could forget
