Gravel Drive

You're going away again It's almost as if you never came I'm tired and helpless and midnight's here leave me something something that will make me smile Someone is calling from the den "when does survivor come on" I hear the car door slamming footsteps on the gravel drive take me with you take me away leave me a piece of your smile journeys of a lifetime leaving from here travelling the edges like footsteps on a gravel drive

John Cale