

Only Time Will Tell

John Cale

Only time will tell
If any mischief in our heart
Can cause the damage done
And put it right
Only time will tell
If the songs are in their places
Safe from undiscovered poison
words and rhymes
The gentle pain of falling rain
I'll hide behind to kill
Behind the frozen mask
And ask
If time will tell
Is it heaven or hell
Like Boadicea without a chariot
History of luck
Only time will tell
Only time will tell
Only time will tell
Only time will tell
