John Cale

There's been a nightly visit for such a long time
Because of you
It's got all the hallmarks of a classic affair
That we all know
It may surprise us still - for both of us until You'll be wondering at it
I'll be standing by
You'll be smiling at it
I'll be wondering why
It will remind us of what's inside us
How closely things we feel will touch and make us whole
It may surprise us in the end
You'll be wondering at it
I'll be standing by
You'll be smiling at it
I'll be wondering why
Will it stand the test of time
It will stand the test of time
