

Whaddya Mean By That

John Cale

Teach me how to love
Teach me how to hate
I'm in a hurry
I mustn't be late

Standing in the window
Staring at the street
I see you in the distance
Fading in the heat
You ask if you hurt me
Whaddya mean by that
Look around the corner
You don't remember that

Feel like dancing
On the head of a pin
Watching and waiting
For you to begin
Letting your lonely heart
Reach out to see
The dancer who's standing
Still at your feet
You asked if you hurt me
Whaddya mean by that
Looked round the corner
You don't remember that

Take me to your bedroom
Lay me on the floor
Before we get started
Make sure to lock the door
Deep in the shadows
There's plenty of room
For you to be dancing
A dancing fool

You asked if you'd hurt me
Whaddya mean by that
Look around the corner
You don't remember that
