

Home With A View

John Elefante

It's been such a hard year
I don't understand
Seems like nothing's gone my way
I try to spend time with the ones I love
I wish there were more hours in a day
And it feels like I'm moving way too fast
I've been running far too long
I want to get back to my first love
And be where I belong

There's a place I can go where I know You'll be
I just close my eyes and let Your love take hold of me

So come meet me, Father, at my home with a view
Where I can look out on the water and spend time with You
I won't worry about tomorrow
You will see me through
So come meet me, Father, at my home with a view

The sun shines on the water
To make a stained glass sea
A songbird on the rooftop
Singing perfectly
It all started on a hillside
With your Son upon a tree
I believe He died and rose again
And that's why He's here with me

There's a place I can go where I know You'll be
I just close my eyes and let Your love take hold of me

So come meet me, Father, at my home with a view
Where I want to worship Your power and give praise to You
I won't worry about tomorrow
You will see me through
So come meet me, Father, at my home with a view
