When The Sun Comes Up

John Entwistle

I've sat and waited for years Looking for signs to appear-to me But all I'd see Was clouded in mystery And now that I've turned the page I've broken out of my cage-of fear That kept me here A prisoner for so many years Chorus: When the sun comes up The moon goes down You can find your way back home If you wait 'til the sun comes round Now that the tables have turned I'm taking all that I've learned-with me Now I can see The truth is what's burning free Repeat Chorus: Bridge/Solo Now I can stand on my own No fear of being alone-again The darkness ends The moment I see my old friend Repeat Chorus:
