

Let Me Out

John Farnham

I don't have
All of your answers
I'm just taking my chances as I see them
Someone get me home
Every day I feel a little more alone
I see the looks on their faces
I don't feel the same

And it's getting old
Trying to do what I've been told
I see it all in front of me now

Yeeah
Let me out
Let me out
Yeeah
Let me out
I don't have time for people draggin' me down

Waiting on
Waiting on someone to feel the same
Waiting for someone who can talk straight
And it's getting late

Someone get me home
Every day I feel a little more alone
I give you all I can you say you will and then you won't
I know everybody's tryin, they got problems of their own

But it's getting old
I'm trying to do what I've been told
I see it all in front of me now

Yeeeah
Let me out
Let me out
Yeeeah
Let me out
I don't have time for people draggin' me down
Yeeeah
Let me out
I won't be the last one shouting
Let me out
I don't have time for people draggin' me down

I know you like I, know myself
But there's, only so much that we can tell each other
So you say we can, start again
But there' so much I know that I've tried hard to forget
I see it all in front of me now

Yeeeah
Let me out
I won't be the last one shouting
Let me out
I don't have time for people draggin' me down
Yeeeah

Let me out
I won't be the last one shouting
Let me out
Yeeeah
Let me out
