

The Fire

John Farnham

You, you light the fire
That just keeps burning on in my heart
You have the one voice
That keeps returning over and over

Magic can be hard to see
Sometimes dreams can vanish for too easily
And the reason's oh so hard to find
You will never ever be

Out of my mind
Or out of my heart
Even though we're apart
You're never away from me
Never out of my mind
Or out of my heart

Sometimes the fire burns
A little close to the heart
Somehow that one voice
Just keeps drifting further and further

Please try and understand
That some things just don't work out
Quite the way we planned
Though we may fall from time to time
You will never ever be
