When I was a child my family would travel Down to Western Kentucky where my parents were born There's a backwards old town that's often remembered So many times that my memories are worn.

And daddy, won't you take me back to Muhlenberg County Down by the Green River where Paradise lay? Well, I'm sorry, my son, but you're too late in asking Mr. Peabody's coal train has hauled it away.

Well, sometimes we'd travel right down the Green River To the abandoned old prison down by Adrie Hill Where the air smelled like snakes and we'd shoot with our pisto ls

But empty pop bottles was all we would kill.

And daddy, won't you take me back to Muhlenberg County Down by the Green River where Paradise lay? Well, I'm sorry, my son, but you're too late in asking Mr. Peabody's coal train has hauled it away.

Hey!

Then the coal company came with the world's largest shovel And they tortured the timber and stripped all the land Well, they dug for their coal till the land was forsaken Then they wrote it all down as the progress of man.

And daddy, won't you take me back to Muhlenberg County Down by the Green River where Paradise lay? Well, I'm sorry, my son, but you're too late in asking Mr. Peabody's coal train has hauled it away.

When I die, let my ashes float down the Green River Let my soul roll on up to the Rochester dam I'll be halfway to Heaven with Paradise waitin' Just five miles away from wherever I am.

And daddy, won't you take me back to Muhlenberg County Down by the Green River where Paradise lay?
