

Enter The Angel

John Foxx

Oh I was walking
Down through gardens wet with rain
Someone changing
Changing everything

Then I was wondering
Who I was before we woke
As the dawn was folding
Folding over me

When enter the angel
Enter the angel
Oh enter the angel
Through some summer door

Then I was standing
By a bay of burning blue
I saw the lightning
Shining through the sea

Then I was bathing
In the beauty of a face
And there was silence
Mist and glimmering

When enter the angel
Enter the angel
Oh enter the angel
Through some summer door

Then I was walking out
Across the autumn days
You were turning, I said
"What's your name?"

When enter the angel
Enter the angel
Oh enter the angel
Through some summer door

Enter the angel
Enter the angel
Oh enter the angel
Through some summer door
