

In Mysterious Ways

John Foxx

Oh, let me walk again
All through the blaze of early June
Into fields all sparkling bright with dew
Came to meet you 'cause you called me
So I put down my coat and case
As we stand here finally face to face
I've got to laugh at the way that fortune's grace
Defeats my reason with it's wonder
And your love
Shines free
Moves me
In mysterious ways
In such mysterious ways
In mysterious ways
And I find
That I just can't look away from you
And I'm glad
That at last I begin to see
Just how you move through everything
You make my whole world sing
'Cause your love
Shines free
Moves me
In mysterious ways
In such mysterious ways
In mysterious ways
