

Run

John Frusciante

Run past the borderline
One and two are out of time
Spin to the rhythm of what's around you, love
In my mind
I'm happy, you're happy here
Underlined
How you are, we are Always in two
And we laugh at bars that hide you from me
And we drift to the sides that hold what all will be
And we laugh at bars that hide you from me
And we drift to the sides that hold what all will
