

TC and Honeybear

John Grant

For TC and his Honeybear
The world will not stop moving
Roundezvous and longing stares
And hearts that won't stop burning

Before that Honeybear had given up
He felt so sad and lonely
Then one night he looked up and he saw
He saw his one and only

TC came onto the scene
He entered in on golden wings
With him he brought butterflies
Of crimson red and emerald green

Before TC Honeybear was waiting
Was waiting for him patiently
TC took his fear away
Became his one and only

The world came crashing down on them with all of it's ferocity and Honeybear was terrified he said do not take him, take me

Before that Honeybear had given up
He felt so sad and lonely
Then one night he looked up and he saw
He saw his one and only

He said please don't take him
'Cause I love him
He's my joy and my life

For my love I won't hesitate
I will give him all that his heart can take
And I'll trust him fearlessly
I want him to be free
