

'Til I Get My Lovin' Back

John Hiatt

I wake in the mornin'
Out of my mind
And I used to live for
That morning sunshine
Now I hide in the darkness
It's all I can do
'Til I get my lovin' back
My lovin' back from you

I can't go out walking
I can't go to sleep
I can't stop thinking
'Bout the promise I keep
I won't love another
If it's the last thing I do
'Til I get my lovin' back
My lovin' back from you

My friends are so wrong
When they say just go on
And I say, "Where to and what for?"

They don't understand
I'm a shell of a man
With no love to give anymore

'Til hell freezes over
'Til heaven skates by
'Til heartache stops hurtin'
In the blink of an eye
'Til these teardrops I'm crying
Turn to sweet morning dew
'Til I get my lovin' back
My lovin' back from you
'Til I get my lovin' back
My lovin' back from you
