Forgive Me

John Lee Hooker

They tell me God forgives you for almost anything you do Well, they tell me God forgives you for almost anything you do Well, if that's the case, that's the case
I think I'm going to shoot that man, yeah, then fall down on my knees

Well, this morning, God knows that man he comes waltzing in Yeah, he comes just waltzing in, so I got my shotgun I broke down, I started to mow my baby down, yeah

Yeah, they tell me God forgives you for almost anything you do If that's the case, now, people, well, I'm gonna mow my baby do wn

I'm gonna mow my baby down, I'm gonna shoot the man Well, I'm gonna shoot the man

You don't put yourself out, you don't put yourself out You don't treat your baby right No, no, no, no, you don't treat your baby right But darling, there come a time you're gonna need my love again, yeah

They tell me God forgives you for almost anything you do You don't seem to understand, I've got your life right in my hands

Well, they tell me God forgives you for almost anything you do Yeah, anything you do
