

R.m. Blues

John Lee Hooker

Why oh why?
Why did you break my heart?
Why oh why?
Why did you break my heart?

If you didn't want me, baby
Why did you have to start?

Now I'm in love with you
But I'll have to let you go
Yes, I'm in love with you
But I'll have to let you go

You know the good book says
You gotta reap just what you sow

Now I'm gonna leave you
To do the best you can
Yes, I'm gonna leave you
To do the best you can

I'll find another woman
You find another man
