

Wednesday Evening Blues

John Lee Hooker

You know She left one Wednesday evenin'.
When the sun was sinkin' low.
She left me that Wednesday evenin'.
When the sun was sinkin' low.

My baby don't know how she hurt me
She made me feel so bad

My baby told me I told you johnny
A long time ago if you don't stop your ways
Gonna leave you baby

You thought one thing
I love you to hard to leave you
But now the day have come you love me

I don't love you you did me so bad
You drove my love away
Now I'm gonna leave mmm leave
Today is Wednesday.
Leavin' on this day yeah

Everyday people
Everyday on Wednesday Think about my baby
You know She left me
When the sun was sinkin' low.

She sat down and told me
She said johnny, you do a girl so bad
She can love you a length of a time
If you don't change you mind
The girl get tired her love go away
But now I'm tired an you in love

I said baby please don't go
I have changed my mind
That was one Wednesday evenin'.
When the sun was sinkin' low.
