

Seen A Darkness

John Mark McMillan

We have seen a darkness but we have seen a light
We have felt the love of a hope's hot blood in the machinery of night
We have seen a darkness but we have seen the sun
We have come undone to a love's hot song in a symphony of blood

The valley of the shadow knows our name
We have seen a night but we have seen the day
Dressed in the blood of love's hot veins
We have overcome, yeah, we have overcome

Born into the grave but born a second time
We've been born again into loves hot hands on someone else's di me

The valley of the shadow knows our name
We have seen a night but we have seen the day
Dressed in the blood of loves hot veins
We have overcome, yeah, we have overcome

You have called us loved and You have called us wanted
One time we were bruised, we were bankrupt and haunted
