Time to Die

John Maus

It's time to die And everybody knows that you can't ask why And even if the answer could be supplied It wouldn't change the fact that it's time to die. It's time to die.

Listen to your body Listen to your-

It's time to die And everybody knows that you can't ask why And even if the answer could be supplied It wouldn't change the fact that it's time to die. It's time to die.

It's time to die And everybody knows that you can't ask why And even if the answer could be supplied It wouldn't change the fact that it's time to die. It's time to die.

Listen to your body Listen to your body Listen to your body Listen to your body Yah, listen to your body Yah, listen to your body Listen to your-

It's time to die And everybody knows that you can't ask why And even if the answer could be supplied It wouldn't change the fact that it's time to die. It's time to die.
