

Many Miles Apart

John Mayall

Here in New York City
I just can't wait to get back home
I know my baby's waiting
Because she told me she's on the phone

When I dialed her number
It felt so good to hear her voice
When I dialed her number
It felt so good to hear her voice
It made the distance shorter
I'd be straight home
If I had the choice

But it makes it not so bad
To be so many miles apart
I'll be home before long
And then she'll satisfy my heart
