I know you've been sworn I read your complaint you're needing someone older and though I've been warned to live day by day there's something taking over

Did you expect to kiss me one time while looking at me with the same eyes ever again? so come on and face it so come on and face it it's time that we say it

You can cross the line whenever you want to I'm calling it love soon close your mind and waste some time if you have to I'm calling it love soon
it's not about you now it's what we are

Your mother complains that you need a man you haven't mentioned me yet and all of your friends don't know who I am I've been your best kept secret

I understand I wasn't part of the plan a dollar short, a minute early but I am your man so come on and face it so come on and face it it's time that we say it

You can cross the line whenever you want to I'm calling it love soon close your mind and waste some time if you have to I'm calling it love soon it's not about you now it's what we are

Let's bypass the bullshit and move on because the minute hand moves faster than you think it does and by no fault of yours and by no fault of mine the bottom line is laying in the bed that we've been playing in tonig
