A Brand New Song

John Mellencamp

Sweet belly of the moment You've realized you've changed And everything you are after Well, has gone down the drain

You're nothing more than just a drifter As you walk down your road Not exactly the picture You thought you'd be sending home

All these places mean nothing It's the people we count on Here without a purpose Gone without a song

Yesterday seemed so sudden Today seems to have no end So you button up the buttons Say goodbye to what has been

Those black and white pictures
That file through your veins
That's the trouble with the future
It always stays the same

And your pride?s been shaken
And those people you count on
Here without a purpose
And gone without a song, without a song

In the uncertainty of a new day Opportunity may howl You hear the voice in a new way In the past you didn't know how

You're old enough to know the difference Between an enemy and a friend With the eyes of knowledge upon you You're able to stand up again

Life is always in motion And there's new people to count on Here you may find a purpose And sing a brand new song

Life is always in motion

New people to count on

Here we find a purpose

To sing a brand new song

Brand new song, sing a brand new song
