Brothers

John Mellencamp

Let's get to the point now Just because we've got the same mum and dad That don't mean I'm your keeper That don't mean I owe anything to you You don't care for me And man I don't think that much of you 'Cause we're brothers brothers brothers I don't approve of anything you do 'Cause we're brothers brothers brothers Cain and abel and me and you You drove my car when we were young boys And you tore it up too You never paid to get it fixed And you got me beat up a time or two I know I should forgive and forget But man I still hold a grudge against you 'Cause we're brothers brothers brothers I don't approve of anything you do 'Cause we're brothers, brothers, brothers Cain and abel and me and you It is as normal as it can be This sibling rivalry We should have dropped it at twenty two But man I can't stand the things you do 'Cause we're brothers, brothers, brothers You're always want something from me 'Cause we're brothers, brothers, brothers It was so much fun having you in the family 'Cause we're brothers, brothers, brothers Now that we're grown it ain't helped nothin?at all 'Cause we're brothers, brothers, brothers On my birthday, please don't bother to call 'Cause we're brothers, brothers, brothers Brothers, brothers, brothers Yeah, you're my brother, brother, brother Brothers, brothers, brothers Yeah, we're brothers, brothers, brothers Yeah, we're brothers, brothers, brothers Brothers, brothers, brothers
