

China Girl

John Mellencamp

China girl, I met you in the sea sand
You touched me with your cool hand
Your perfumes in the wind

China girl, your daddy tells you white lies
To keep it from my blue eyes
To know me is no sin

And I wont break you, China girl
If you take me into your world
Its been my good fortune to find you
China girl

Stolen flowers, are the sweetest in the mornin
The eastern sun is dawnin
Your silks against my skin

China girl, take me to your jasmine place
Cool me with your subtle grace
To know me is no sin

And I wont break you, China girl
If you take me into your world
Its been my good fortune to find you
China girl
