Life Is Hard

John Mellencamp

Life is hard anyway you cut it Life is sweet like a berry from a tre Life is temptation, baby, every single day Life is hard Life is funny, I don't mean ha-ha It's not always sunny when it needs to be Life is frightening, nothing lasts forever Life is hard My time Is next to nothing My time Falls on you, yeah Everything Is in motion Life is hard Life is precious, no matter how you see it Life is crazy like yellow fishes in the street Life is lonely, when you're not with me Life is hard Gentleman, Is that your story? Hanging religion from a tree, yeah My time is next to nothing Life is hard My time Is next to nothing My time Falls on you, yeah Everything Is in motion Life is hard My time Falls on you, yeah Life is hard Life is hard
