

My Sweet Love

John Mellencamp

Sweet love standing at my gate
Oh, my sweet love
It sure would feel good to feel good again
Oh, my sweet love

You say that you need me, you'll always believe me
Oh, my sweet love
That our love is forever, we'll always be together
Oh, my sweet love

You say you'll always come through, there's nothing that you wo n't do
Oh, my sweet love
But I've heard it all before, I can't beg you anymore
Oh, my sweet love

You're the woman who knows exactly what she's doing
You're the girl who ate the apple off the tree
When you're good you're just crazy
When you're bad you're too much

You say you'd never hurt me, you'll never desert me
Oh, my sweet love
That your words are always true, I can depend on you
Oh, my sweet love

When you get in the wind and all the storms begin
Oh, my sweet love
When you're sad and dismantled and all your senses rattled
Oh, my sweet love

You're the woman who knows exactly what she's doing
You're the girl who ate the apple off the tree
When you're good you're just crazy
When you're bad you're too much

Sweet love standing at my gate
Oh, my sweet love
It sure would feel good to feel good again
Oh, my sweet love
