Don't Want The Same Things

John Miles

Don't know what you've been thinkin'
Don't know what has been said
Something happening to me
Can't get you out of my head
People 'round you are smiling
Could be this is the end?
Now is just the beginning
On my lovin' you can depend
Oh, I know I could have done much better
Lost my way and don't know how
I've been going through so many changes
But I know where I'm going now
Don't want the same things
Too easy to blame things
So is it too much that I'm asking?
I'm gonna change things
Don't want the same things
Too easy to blame things
So is it too much that I'm asking?
I'm gonna change things
Takin' more than I'm giving
Didn't get me too far
Now I've left for the last time
I'm staying right here where you are
I've been learnin' my lesson
I've been foolish I know
Trying not to remember
And hoping that it doesn't show
Oh, I know I could have done much better
Lost my way and don't know how
I've been going through so many changes
But I know where I'm going now
Don't want the same things
Too easy to blame things
So is it too much that I'm asking?
I'm gonna change things
Don't want the same things
Too easy to blame things
So is it too much that I'm asking?
I'm gonna change things
I'm gonna change things
Oh, I know I could have done much better
Lost my way and don't know how
I've been going through so many changes
But I know where I'm going now
Don't want the same things
Too easy to blame things
So is it too much that I'm asking?
I'm gonna change things
Don't want the same things
Too easy to blame things
So is it too much that I'm asking?
I'm gonna change things
Don't want the same things
Too easy to blame things
So is it too much that I'm asking?
I'm gonna change things
