

Rest Easy

John Reuben

Age ten I began to understand that throughout life there would be no end to strugglin' but then again what can you comprehend with no one to trust or on whom i could depend but here I am now stand and adult I gotta be responsible and it is my fault for my present situation even though I wasn't taught on how to handle what I'm facin' I'm gonna make it happen bump procrastination today is now so nows become my destination waitin' on the voice of God for where to go and I'll put my hope in you I'll say to no man

Chorus:

Rest easy easy I say I say whom shall I fear
