

If It Was Anyone But You

John Schneider

If anyone had passed me by
And hadn't said hello
If anyone had acted like
We'd never met before
It wouldn't make no difference
It wouldn't make me blue
If it was anyone but you

And if anyone had looked away
When I caught their eye
If anyone had seen me wave
And let it go right by
It wouldn't make no difference
I wouldn't come unglued
If it was anyone but you

If it was anyone except the one
Who I had loved and counted on
To stand beside me till the end
And if I was any fool except the fool
Who gave his heart and soul to you
I wouldn't be so devastated
Just seein' you again

Cause if anyone had touched my hand
And gently said I do
Promised me forever
And then had been untrue
I might have understood it
That's somethin' anyone might do
If it was anyone but you

I said I might have understood it
That's somethin' anyone might do
If it was anyone
If it was anyone
If It was anyone but you
