

You Set My Dreams To Music

John Travolta

Oh, I'm loving what I see
Each time you smile at me
I love the look of what you're thinking
I know how it feels to fly
I'm glowing like the sky that's on fire
As the sun is sinking
Oh, you set my dreams to music
As you spend the whole night making them come true
And in my whole life
I have never had a dream as sweet as you
No-one else I ever knew
Touch me quite like you
Or say as much
Without a word now
Love, I'm hoping you can see a song's inside of me
That holds more love
Than any song you've heard, now
Oh, you set my dreams to music
As you spend the whole night making them come true
And in my whole life
I have never had a dream as sweet as you
And in my whole life
I have never had a dream as sweet as you...
