

Me And My 424

John Vanderslice

You know it's the time
So goodbye for now
I crudely descend
The stairway to defend
Me and my 424

I piss you off in slanted rhyme
Walk away in 3/4 time
And the nude descends
The stairway once again
Basement living always mends
I'll come to you then
Shell shocked pale gray
A box of T-D-K's
And me and my 424

You can ask my 424
For guidance and for help
As it pulled me through
Number five and number twelve
Say goodbye to model two
Cause the discontinued you
I got parts and I got spares
Unlimited repairs
For my 424

It's not really four tracks
You can add and you can subtract
Unlimited sky above you and
Me and my 424
