

I Just Wanna Talk

John Wesley Harding

I don't mind if you finish my sentences for me
Interrupt anytime, that's ok too
If the alternative's nothing, alright then ignore me
But I just wanna talk with you
Men and women look good with no clothes on
To a puritan, everything's crude
But nothing's nuder than language in union
And I just wanna talk with you
Forget the gossip, the rumour, the lies and the chatter
One day we'll say something true
None of the rest will be used as evidence against us
And I just wanna talk to you
I just wanna talk.....
