

I Don't Think You Know

West, John

Yeah I was stuck on you
A stupid thing to do
It was almost perfect
You almost told the truth
I needed you to know
It was real for me
You have one foot out the door so casually
You let the feeling go
You let the feeling change
It was almost right but
I can't live this way

I've waited just for you
I waited and you know
I got better things in store
But I don't think you know
Oh oh, yeah yeah
I don't think you know
Oh oh, yeah yeah

With a little bit of beat [?]
You don't understand it
I don't think you see
I know what I am
Ain't enough for me
I gave you a shot, I
Wish I've had it now
Cause I know what I got, what I got, what I got, yea

I'ma let this feeling go
And I did not need to know
And [?]
But I don't think you know
Oh oh, yeah yeah
I don't think you know
Oh oh, yeah yeah
I don't think you know
Oh oh, yeah yeah
I don't think you know
Oh oh, yeah yeah
