Crossed over to the spirit world Was like walking through fire Familiar faces all around me Waiting to see me

We talk, but no one speaks Shrouded in eerie, white bliss This is what I have seen

When worlds collide - sound like thunder When worlds collide - ocean of rain When worlds collide

Walked amongst ghosts and men I prefer the dark side Specter, haunt me no longer I am you now

We touch, but no one feels Covered in Holy light This is how it is

When worlds collide - sound like thunder When worlds collide - ocean of rain When worlds collide - sound like thunder When worlds collide - ocean of rain

We talk, but no one speaks Shrouded in eerie, white bliss This is what I have seen

When worlds collide - sound like thunder When worlds collide - ocean of rain When worlds collide - sound like thunder When worlds collide - ocean of rain

Ocean of rain

Worlds collide