INTRO:

Well the Bible tells us about a man
 Who ruled Babylon and all it's land
 Around the city he built a wall
 And declared that Babylon would never fall

He had concubines and wives
He called his Babylon "Paradise"
On his throne he drank and ate
But for Belshazzer it was getting late

R: For he was weighed in the balance and found wanting
His kingdom was divided, couldn't stand
He was weighed in the balance and found wanting
His houses were built upon the sand

SOLO:

2. The people feast and drank their wine And praised the false gods of his time All holy things were scorned and mocked But suddenly all their mocking stopped

For on the wall there appeared a hand Nothing else, there was no man And but, the hand began to write And Belshazzar couldn't hide his fright

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{R}}\xspace$  For he was weighed in the balance and found wanting...

SOLO:

3. Well no one around could understand What was written by the mystic hand Belshazzar tried but couldn't find A man who could give him piece of mind

But Daniel the prophet, the man of God He saw the writing on the wall in blood Belshazzar asked him what it said And Daniel turned to the wall and read

R: "My friend your weighed in the balance and found wanting Your kingdom was divided, it can't stand Your weighed in the balance and found wanting Your houses were built upon the sand"
