

2nd Place

Johnny Gill

I wish that I could tell you
That I love you so much
But I don't
I wish that I could kiss you
When I'm seeing someone else
I know it's wrong
So before I take these vows
Thought I'd let you know
I have some doubts

Oh you are not the one for me
We know we were not meant to be
But it was strong enough to stand
The truth is your in 2nd place

I know I should have told you
Long before today
I know that I can't heal you
From all the words I'm saying
The woman who takes your place
I don't know who
All I know it isn't you

Oh you are not the one for me
We know we were not meant to be
But it was strong enough to stand
The truth is your in 2nd place

Ooooooh I know you'll thank me later
It's better off to leave than regret and oh

You are not the one for me
We know we were not meant to be
But it was close enough to see
But the truth is your in 2nd place 2nd place
Oooh oooh oooooooh.
